Fairview Range welcomes new hospitalist physician

HIBBING — Fairview Range is pleased to welcome Arvydas Urbonas, MD, to its medical staff.

Urbonas specializes and is board certified in Internal Medicine. He comes to Fairview Range with more than 30 years of experience and joins the hospitalist team of Dr. Sereen Sharp, Dr. Scott Stenstrom, Dr. Andrew McGibben, Dr. Anthony Bastianelli and Certified Nurse Practitioner Selena Lundquist.

Hospitalists are available to provide care 24/7 when patients are admitted to the hospital. The extensive experience of Fairview Range hospitalists allows them to recognize and diagnose unusual disorders, anticipate problems and rapidly respond to crises or changes in a patient's condition.

They work consistently with all of the members of the patient care team, including physician specialists, physical therapists, occupational therapists, nurses and others to help improve the quality and effectiveness of care.

When patients are discharged, Fairview Range hospitalists will discuss necessary treatments, testing, follow-up appointments and medication prescriptions with the patient's primary doctor. When patients are released from the hospital, their primary doctor resumes care and answers questions.

MDI elects new board officers

MINNEAPOLIS — MDI, a Minnesota-based nonprofit social enterprise with the mission to serve people with disabilities by offering inclusive employment opportunities and services, has elected new officers to its Board of Directors, including naming Ellen Hoeg to succeed Keith Olson as independent chair; along with electing Jill Hesselroth to vice-chair, effective Jan. 25.

The Board of Directors elected Hoeg to serve as board chair, as Olson will step down from this role after two years of dedicated service, but will remain on the board. Hoeg has served as a board member since 2014. She has also chaired the MDI business development committee during which time the company launched a new polypropylene product line and medical "White Room," offering controlled environment production services.

Hesselroth will succeed Hoeg as vice-chair. Hesselroth has served on the board since 2016, and is a business development committee member. Hesselroth brings a wealth of business and lean manufacturing experience. She has served as CEO of Intek Plastics since April 2015 and has led the company's expansion into several new markets.

MDI is a leader in manufacturing standard and custom, corrugated-plastic packaging solutions, production assembly and environmental services. Through a social enterprise model, MDI creates self-sufficiency by providing meaningful work in an inclusive environment, with nearly half of the workforce comprised of people with disabilities. Headquartered in the Twin Cities, MDI has additional locations in Hibbing, Grand Rapids and Cohasset.
